Job description

- Melbourne based
- Permanent role
- Family-friendly and flexible work arrangements

An award-winning, Full-Service agency in the heart of Richmond is offering the opportunity for a Web Developer to come and the digital part of the agency.

The ideal candidate will have 8+ years of experience with agencies but we are open to talking to people who are prepared for agency culture who have a genuine passion for web development, are growth-focused and team orientated.

If you have all of that, there are opportunities for you to produce industry-leading websites and web services for big government agencies and organisations - not a lot of other agencies doing this sort of work so a pretty unique opportunity!!

Role and duties:
Scoping and documenting digital projects; liaising with clients and coworkers to collect requirements; Drupal/PHP development (plus some full-stack); server setup and maintenance (small part of the role); researching industry trends, tools and best practice approaches to undertaking your work and helping integrate these into the agency.

Reporting structure: Reports to Lead Developer and Managing Director, Digital

Some of the technologies you'll be using:

- JavaScript (ES6), frameworks such as Vue.js or React
- HTML5, CSS3, SASS
- Bootstrap
- OOP PHP, and PHP frameworks like Laravel, Yii or Symfony
- CMS such as Wordpress and/or Drupal
- Coding best practices - OOP, Design patterns, Data structures etc.
- Git and Github
- Building responsive, cross-platform and cross-browser compatible sites
- Knowledge of W3C standards and WCAG accessibility compliance
- Command line experience in a Linux and/or Mac OS environment

What to expect:

- Great team. Great work
- Award-winning integrated creative agency
- Fast-growing with blue-chip clients
- Purpose-driven agency where people and culture are our focus
- National footprint with offices Melbourne, Canberra and Sydney.

Please send us your CV and a list of example websites where you've been the primary developer.

Icon is an equal opportunity employer. Only short-listed candidates will be notified. Thank you for your interest in this position.
